About Forged

With Forged, you are holding character in your hands. The brand stands for cooking with personality. That calls for a handmade knife that is as unique as you are. The Forged collection consists of several series, each with its own look and features. Show what steel you are forged from and choose a knife that suits you.

Forged stands for skill and craftsmanship. Eye-catching design, robust quality and more than value for money. Developed from a tremendous love of cooking, barbecuing and dining. Each knife is hand-forged from Japanese steel in a workshop that exudes passion for the craft in all aspects: the heat, the smell and orange glow of the fire and the hissing sound when the metal is cooled. You can literally see the blacksmith's hammer blow on the blade. And each time you use and sharpen the knife, it takes on even more personality. That makes your knife unique.
